It is with great regret that the members of the Florida Supreme Court today learned of the death of former Justice Wade L. Hopping.

"Justice Hopping will always remain a highly respected member of the legal community in Tallahassee and the state," said Florida Chief Justice Peggy A. Quince. "His contributions benefited all three branches of government, ranging from his work as an advisor to Gov. Claude Kirk, to his service on the Supreme Court, and to his later work helping draft and win approval for groundbreaking state legislation.

"On behalf of the Court, I extend our heartfelt sympathy to his family and friends."

Justice Hopping served on the Court from 1968 to 1969.
